

I DON'T NEED A ROOF

[SEGUE FROM #16]

[REV. 6/27/14]

Music and Lyrics by
ANDREW LIPPA

[SPOTLIGHT reveals Edward clutching his neck. He takes his hands away, surprised to find there's no noose. Sandra wakes, panicked to see Edward in this state.]

SANDRA: "Edward? Honey?"

EDWARD: "He attacked me. Come after me like I'm a villain."

SANDRA: "You're okay! Let's calm down. Tell me what happened."

EDWARD: "I just did! I did, didn't I? It's all got kind of blurry."

SANDRA: "It's okay honey. You're right here with me."

[Thunder - MUSIC]

EDWARD: "The roof should hold up. The shingles still got at least ten years in 'em. You'll be fine."

Expressive ♩ = 102

Gr. 2 (Nylon)

[off her reaction]

EDWARD: "Ah, honey.
What'd I say?" [GO ON]

Slower
Vamp

10 11 12 13

In this place I feel at ease.

14 15 16 17

Wall - pa - per peel - ing, paint wear - ing thin.

+Gtr. 1

18 19 20 21

Here's where I end and be - gin.

Vc. espr.

+Vln, Vla, Key. 2
PLAY

22 23 24 25

I don't need a roof to say I'm cov - ered.

Alto Fl.

26 27 28 29

I don't need a roof to know I'm home.

Cl.

30 31 32 33

There could be a sing - le shin - gle dang - ling o - ver - head.

Vln.

34 35 36 37

I don't need a roof to make my bed.

38 39 40 41

Close your eyes, I'm still be - side you.

Glock solo Eng. Hn.